- Updates to Employee Retention Credit claims processing
- IRS alerts businesses on red flags concerning ERC claims
- Tax relief for 28 counties in Georgia affected by Hurricane Idalia
- Other tax-related content

Key notes:

- Immediate stop to new Employee Retention Credit processing: Amid rising concerns about a flood of improper Employee Retention Credit claims, IRS announced an immediate moratorium through at least the end of the year on processing new claims for the pandemic-era relief program to protect honest small business owners from scams. For more information see the recently:
 - updated: Frequently asked questions about ERC
 - new: If/then guide concerning ERC eligibility
- Red flags for Employee Retention Credit claims: IRS continues to warn businesses to watch out for aggressive marketing by nefarious actors involving the Employee Retention Credit (ERC) and urged people to watch out for red flags that can signal trouble.
- Georgia taxpayers impacted by Idalia qualify for tax relief: IRS announced tax relief for individuals and businesses affected by Hurricane Idalia in 28 of the state's 159 counties in Georgia. These taxpayers now have until Feb. 15, 2024, to file various federal individual and business tax returns and make tax payments.
- IRS is hiring: IRS is looking for talented professionals to make our nation stronger. We are more than just the nation's tax collection agency. We're an organization that's been part of events that help shape the nation we serve.
