Document Description

Position Committee

Hearing Date Status

An employee is entitled to: Maintenance of their health benefits; Accrual of employment benefits made before the date the leave commenced; Not exhaust their vacation or sick time before taking paid leave; Right to request or use paid leave; Right to communicate an intent to file a claim for benefits to the employer; Right to appeal eligibility determinations, Right to testify or participate in an investigation under the act; Right to inform the DOL of an alleged violation of the act. If employee is entitled to leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, they must take that leave concurrently with leave under the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance Act. If employee is entitled to disability or family care leave, they must take that leave concurrently with leave under the Act, if it is being taken for the same reason. An individual is disqualified from receiving benefits for one year if they willfully made a false statement or misrepresentation regarding a fact or willfully failed to report a fact. If such occurs, the commissioner can seek repayment of benefits allotted by: Bringing civil action; Offsetting payment against future benefits payable to the individual; or Issuing a levy on salary or wages due to the individual.

Employers cannot discipline employees for taking leave. Covered employers must make their employees aware of their rights to paid family and medical leave under the Act. Information relating to an individual's use of paid leave is confidential and not part of public record unless it is used for court or legal proceedings. Anyone who violates this is quilty of a Class III misdemeanor.

Maximum amount of paid leave per year is: 10 weeks for leave taken at once; or 60 days for leave taken on an intermittent basis. Benefits schedule: 90% of average weekly wage that is at or below 50% of the state average weekly wage; 50% of average weekly wage; that is above 50% of the state average weekly wage; Amount of benefits paid in any week cannot exceed 66% of the state average weekly wage; Benefits only apply to wages earned by employment. One week waiting period before benefits are paid. Leave taken for more than 10 days is covered. Benefits are not payable for less than one workday of paid leave taken in one workweek. The first payment of benefits has to be made within 3 weeks after the initial claim with subsequent payments occurring weekly as long as the individual is eligible for benefits. No family and medical leave benefits if receiving workers' compensation or unemployment benefits. DOL must notify a covered individual that their benefits are expiring a week before the expiration date.

Employers and individuals can choose to participate in the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance Act by applying to the DOL.

Creates the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance Fund. Must be implemented on or before January 1, 2026. Individuals begin making contributions to pay for their participation in the Act.

The Fund covers payable benefits under the Act and administrative costs. DOL to evaluate and determine contribution amounts necessary to finance the benefits. Appropriates $5.558 million from Health Care Cash Fund cover administrative costs of the Act. Funds are be repaid once the administrator deems they have sufficient funds to do so, but no later than October 1, 2029.

If the IRS deems family and medical leave benefits are subject to federal income tax, the DOL must: notify an individual filing for benefits that their benefits are subject to income tax; Notify an individual filing for benefits of the requirements existing about tax payments; Allow the individual to have federal income tax deducted and withheld from their benefits; Allow the individual to change a previously elected income withholding status. DOL may open investigations into individuals who have not complied with the Act. Citations are issued to employers when an investigation reveals they have violated the act. Penatlies may be imposed, but may not exceed $500 for a first offense and $5000 for a subsequent offense.

Requires the DOL to submit an annual report to the Legislature starting December 31, 2027, including: Amount and percentage of benefits paid for each type of leave; percentage of benefits paid to each gender for each type of leave; amount of contributions remitted by individuals; median payment level for benefits; occupation and industry of individuals receiving benefits; balance of the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance Fund; A summary of the outreach efforts made by the commissioner and employers to increase awareness of the availability of leave; types of family members leave was taken for.

Family and medical leave benefits should not be considered compensation. Benefits are not to be given to individuals who: Worked for an employer for 20 weeks or less to temporarily replace employees using leave benefits and who was laid off upon the return of the employee; Was fired due to their failure to return to work after the expiration of leave; Left work voluntarily while on leave.
